Dear Harry:

In response to your letter of January 25 1991, I am pleased to inform you that the Executive Council of our Chamber has approved your appointment as IACC's representative in the United States. My hearty congratulations to you. The appointment letter is enclosed.

May I request you to go ahead with the process of registering the IACC in U.S. under F.A.R. Act.

As indicated by your goodself (July 21 1990) the duties of the representative are provided in the enclosure. I fully agree with your views that in the initial stages the Chamber should not be burdened with heavy overheads and expenses. We have to measure the operations and our needs over a period of six months and then determine what is really required. Towards this objective may I request you to launch our Chamber in the U.S. officially from your residence. The budget for this representative's office is also enclosed for your review and comments. Kindly let me know if you need funds immediately. It will be sent to you.

Our aims and objectives are to strengthen IACC's international role and prestige by providing useful services to the American and Indian business communities.

If you need any other information from our Secretariat in Bombay, please let us know.

I have taken note of your travel schedules and University assignments in Los Angeles. You can take it that the IACC team that will be visiting Washington will consist of not more than 5/6 people, namely the President, the 2 Executive Vice Presidents, the Immediate Past President and 2 Senior members of the Chamber. The IACC team will visit only two cities namely Washington and New York. I have requested Mr Ashok Pratap, Senior Executive Vice President and Chairman External Affairs Committee to co-ordinate visit of the IACC team with you.

May I request you to confirm acceptance of our offer to you as our representative in U.S.

I have instructed the Secretariat Staff to transmit Fax messages to reach you only between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. Washington time.

We in the Chamber always believe that you are part of our family. We appreciate your efforts in launching our Chamber in the U.S. We are confident that with your efforts we will be able to develop a full fledged IACC Office in Washington.

Regards.

Yours sincerely
